

JVL CORPORATION MAKES IT EASY FOR GAMERS TO PLAY ENCORE – AT HOME!

Customers can now purchase the Encore Touch Screen Countertop Unit – with its sleek style and advanced technology - at amazon.com

(Toronto, Ontario) – Tuesday, March 31, 2009

JVL Corporation is pleased to announce that their revolutionary bar / tavern entertainment unit, Encore, is now available at the Amazon store for individual and home purchase.

The Encore touch screen is state-of-the-art entertainment that offers High Definition 3D games, high-fidelity sound system, cutting edge features including perimeter lighting and Power Pad for optimal gaming performance. Coupled with these innovative elements and JVL's leading software advancements, Encore is the most desired and engaging touch screen machines on the market.

"We are thrilled to be able to sell the Encore through Amazon.com. We can now offer our customers a convenient, easy and secure way to purchase our products," says Val Levitan, President, JVL Corporation. "We found there was a huge demand for the Encore for home consumers, and we are looking forward to expanding the number of products available through the Amazon store in the future and increasing access and convenience for our customers."

Encore allows users to enjoy an unparalleled 3D world experience, and provides over 130 games – including the classics and new releases – that come to life through an intuitive HD experience that cannot be found on any other home gaming unit. The incredible graphics, intense animations and sound effects will bring new levels of excitement and appeal to gamers of all ages. The release of Encore to the home market is another example of JVL's commitment to those who enjoy the thrill of playing video games – now in the comfort of their own surroundings.
